DeGaulle Wins Sweeping Vote for New Constitution

SUPREME COURT WARNS RIGHTS OF PUPILS ARE "NOT TO BE SACRIFICED"

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court declared today the constitutional rights of Negro students "are not to be sacrificed or yielded" to violence and disorder.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—The Little Rock School Board executed a lease today for four closed high school buildings, turning them over to a private group for operation as private, segregated schools. With the approval of the state attorney general, the board went ahead with the leasing without waiting for federal court action in Omaha, Neb., where the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People is asking that the leasing deal be temporarily halted. A two judge court was scheduled to take up the NAACP request for a temporary restraining order at 10 a. m. CST.

OMAHA (AP)—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People looked to a new legal move today to halt private operation of Little Rock, Ark., high schools. NAACP attorneys came to Omaha for court hearings before two 8th Circuit Court of Appeals judges to ask for an injunction to stop the Little Rock school board from leasing its properties to a private corporation.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—The Little Rock School Board, tossed between federal and state pressure, moved today to turn over the city's high schools to a private corporation to avoid integration.

Apparently only action of a federal court session in Omaha, Neb., could prevent the schools from passing into private hands today and opening as segregated institutions later this week. Members of the School Board and officials of the Little Rock Private School Corp., met with Arkansas Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett in closed session until after midnight.

As negotiations for the transfer continued, the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People moved swiftly to block the action.

Storm Loss Is Estimated In Millions

WILMINGTON, N. C. (AP)

—Up and down the coast stand houses with roofs ripped open. Battered trees gleam nakedly against the sky, their shorn limbs piled up on streets and roads. Telephone poles sag crazily.

On the miles of beaches, the surf washes over tens of thousands of conch shells, more souvenirs of the weekend's Hurricane Helene.

Damage from the hurricane is estimated in the millions of dollars. Communications are still out in many areas. But there was no loss of life.

Residents, recalling hurricanes of 1954-55, were prepared when Helene swirled past the Carolinas and the Virginia Capes, well off-shore, with winds up to 140 miles an hour.

A civil defense spokesman said the people "gave us no argument" when asked to evacuate.

There were scattered personal injuries. The Red Cross said 4,950 persons were cared for at 65 shelters.

Spinning shoreward Saturday morning from the southeast, Helene passed up most of South Carolina's lush resort area. She knocked down a fishing pier at Ocean Drive Beach, S. C., and damaged two more piers in Cherry Grove Beach.

Moving toward the jutting North Carolina coastline, she smashed a 300-foot pier at (Turn to Page Ten)

Princess Margaret Having Romantic Visit in Brussels

By EDDY GILMORE

LONDON (AP)—Princess Margaret is going to spend the next three days in romantic Brussels—and her big date is bachelor King Baudouin.

Margaret's rejected suitor, Group Capt. Peter Townsend, an old Brussels boy friend, doesn't even seem to be in her engagement book. Informed sources say Townsend, who has made Brussels his self-exiled home, is not in the city.

It was from the gay capital of Belgium that Townsend once paid court to Margaret by telephone and letters.

Few, if any people, are speculating on any love match between Margaret and Baudouin, but certain facts about them stand out like diamonds on a tiara.

Margaret is 28, unmarried, rich, a royal princess with no apparent suitors in sight. Baudouin is 28, well-off and one of the world's few remaining kings with no girl friend in sight.

But—there are also certain facts that might discourage any romantic coupling of Margaret's and Baudouin's names.

He is a Roman Catholic. She is an Anglican Protestant.

Baudouin is a shy young man who likes fast cars and golf.

His tastes in music run to the classical.

Margaret is a stylish sophisticate, bored by sport or automobile talk.

Her musical tastes run to Dixieland jazz and the bright music of American musicals. She likes dancing and night clubs.

At a quick look—hardly a

Nationalists Will Bomb If "Crucial Moment" Arrives President Kai-shek Warns

By JAMES CARY

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—President Chiang Kai-shek said today his Nationalist air force will bomb the Communist guns ringing Quemoy when and if the "crucial moment" arises.

He added he felt the United States would back him if that time came.

He said this moment would come when the lives of the 130,000 troops and civilians on the outpost fortress are in danger either from the effects of the Communist artillery blockade or other military action.

"When the crucial moment arises I feel the United States will not fall back on its promises to help," he stated. "But the crucial moment has not yet arisen."

"But we will act on our own regardless (of the U.S. attitude) when it comes a question of life and death," he said.

He emphasized Nationalist China is under no obligations to the United States that would prevent it from taking action it feels necessary for its own defense.

Chiang spoke at his first open news conference since Feb. 7, 1955.

Alert and smiling, he also made these points:

1. Nationalist China is following a policy of restraint in the face of heavy losses by Quemoy's civilians and soldiers.

2. It might agree to a United Nations debate on the Formosa crisis under certain conditions.

3. The Red artillery blockade has been rendered temporarily ineffective by air drops and supply efforts.

4. There will never be any need for U.S. ground troops to help defend Quemoy.

Chiang spoke as the Chinese Reds carried their artillery assaults against the Quemoy islands into the 38th day with a relatively light shelling.

By Nationalist Defense Ministry count, 1,009 shells were fired on the islands up to midday today, and 4,552 Sunday.

Nationalist cargo planes dropped supplies on Little Tatan Island for the first time and on Quemoy for the sixth straight night, correspondents reported Sunday night. Another Nationalist convoy shoved supplies to the islands by ship despite Red barages.

Although Chiang said the Red blockade was now ineffective, correspondents on Quemoy said the 5,700 civilians on neighboring Little Quemoy were beginning to run short of food and medicines. Two-thirds of their homes were reported destroyed.

The Nationalists claimed their Quemoy artillery sank 22 small Communist Chinese supply boats and damaged three others in an action Sunday.

Earlier, Rear Adm. Liu Hsi-hu, chief Nationalist military spokesman, spelled out the circumstances (Turn to Page Ten)

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Lancaster County Democratic chairman came to court today to answer charges made against him by a convicted Highways Department swindler.

David R. Eaby requested the right to answer in open court, under oath, charges of political pressure made by Victor Prep, Frackville contractor.

Prep made the charges during a pre-sentence hearing two weeks ago before Dauphin County Judge Homer L. Kreider.

Eaby quickly denied charges that he forced Prep to contribute money to the Democratic party in order to obtain contracts for cinder sales in Lancaster County.

He called Prep a liar and said he would prove in court that he did not force political contributions from Prep, as the Schuylkill County contractor charged.

Prep has been convicted of conspiracy and false pretenses in under sales to the Highways Department in Lancaster and York counties. He also pleaded guilty to the same charges in connection with sales in Chester County.

Prep testified that he gave Eaby a check for $600 and at least $2,000 in cash. He said the money was supposedly for use in political campaigns in Lancaster County.

WARSAW (AP)—Hopes soared today that statements from Washington and Peiping had given a new lease on life to the Formosa talks and eased war threats.

The Warsaw talks between U. S. Ambassador Jacob Beam and Chinese Communist envoy Wang Ping-nan entered their third week today. The envoys hold their fifth meeting Tuesday.

Among developments which diplomats considered conciliatory was the declaration by Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai Sunday that the Red Chinese "do not give up their efforts to find a solution to the disputes between China and the United States through peaceful negotiations."

That was what the diplomats had left after they had stripped away much anti-American verbiage from Chou's Peiping broadcast. Among other statements, he said Communist China would lead the United States to "final and complete disaster if the United States insists on provoking war."

In Washington an announcement on the details of the closed-door talks was postponed beyond the date such an announcement had been expected. This was interpreted as meaning that the highest quarters expected new developments.

It had been reported that if Washington became convinced the talks were fruitless the United States would disclose the details and take the case to the United Nations.

Communist circles here began taking a cheerful view after a secret meeting of Communist Chinese Ambassador Wang with Communist newsmen. Wang was reported to have told them, in general terms, that everything would turn out all right.

Sunday's statement by Chou was regarded as the highest ranking use of what diplomats here call the 40-hour technique. They say that 40 hours before each meeting between Wang and Ambassador Beam the Chinese have issued a press statement which sets the tone for Wang.

The talks will continue without much sense of urgency. Diplomatic circles think the two ambassadors are not negotiating, but merely delivering messages from their governments.

Earlier "leaks" of a time limit on the talks by Washington seem to be forgotten and there is now no indication of a deliberate break off, although the possibility of failure at any (Turn to Page Ten)

The UAW order was made public within minutes after Reuther went into an unusual Sunday morning bargaining session with GM, while another UAW team of negotiators met at the same hour with Chrysler.

The union got speedy agreement from GM that further bargaining talks be delayed until Tuesday while the UAW went about the business of getting the strikers back to work.

Louis G. Seaton, GM vice president, said: "It is a very good thing that the union is going to make an effort to cut off the hit-and-run tactics which have cost thousands of GM workers millions of dollars in wages."

Seaton told newsmen GM had no intention of sweetening the contract offer it made to the union Sept. 20, three days after Ford and the UAW reached contract agreement after a strike of about seven hours involving 98,000 Ford workers.

One week later, October 8, the Bloodmobile will set up at Youngsville Methodist church as a convenience for residents of all that surrounding area. The need for blood donations continues and it is hoped Sylvania employees will respond in good numbers on Wednesday and area residents will turn out on the 10th.

Thousands Isolated by Flooded Rio Grande

PRESIDIO, Tex. (AP)—The Rio Grande, a swollen monster three to four miles wide, crumbled homes as it swept through the Presidio Valley of southwest Texas and isolated thousands at border cities today.

New walls of water were expected from continued deluges along the Rio Conchos in northern Mexico.

About 30 families were evacuated in Presidio. One man was reported drowned on the Mexican side of the river.

The water washed away about 1,000 feet of Santa Fe track, cutting rail connections to northern Mexico.

Solly Hemus Is New Coach of Cardinals

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Solly Hemus, former player with the St. Louis Cardinals, today was named the new manager of the club.

The contract of the fiery little Hemus is for one year, the Cards announced. He succeeds Fred Hutchinson, fired recently when it became obvious the club would not finish as high as the Cardinals bosses had expected.

The announcement confirmed an exclusive Associated Press report of two weeks ago that Hemus, the personal choice of owner August Busch, would be the new manager.

The Cardinals, who wound up the 1958 season in a fifth-place tie with the Chicago Cubs, also named Johnny Keane and Harry Walker as coaches.

Nuclear Weapon Explodes Over Proving Grounds

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP)

—A nuclear test weapon exploded with shattering impact today over the atom-blasted sands of the Nevada proving ground.

The device, packing half the power of the A-bomb that leveled Hiroshima in World War II, was detonated while hanging from a balloon 1,500 feet in the air.

The explosion outshone the rising sun and sent a heavy shock wave rumbling across the desert.

Newsmen clustered on a hill 10 miles away felt the jolt. Light winds carried the fallout from the mushroom cloud directly toward the observer's post. Forecasters had warned of this.

The test was the second in the current series being conducted by the Atomic Energy Commission. It has been postponed twice.

The devices being tested are small as atom bombs go. Today's was rated at 10 kilotons. The emphasis on smaller devices is seen as an attempt to develop nuclear weapons with a wider range of military uses.

The test site is 90 miles from Las Vegas.

Hundreds Missing in Typhoon in Japan

TOKYO (AP)—Relief workers recovered the bodies of 200 more victims of Typhoon Ida today from the mud and debris of ravaged Izu Peninsula, 70 miles southwest of Tokyo.

This brought the number of known dead from the weekend storm reported by the national police to 540.

Police said 976 persons are still missing.

Former Erie Man Faces Hearing on Extortion Charge

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—A former vice president of the Rogers Bros. Co. is scheduled for a hearing Wednesday on a charge he extorted $100,000 from his late father.

Harrison Rogers, 46, of Albion, is accused of demanding the money from Louis Rogers for withholding certain information from the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Dist. Atty. Herbert Johnson Jr. of Erie County said the information with which the younger Rogers allegedly threatened his father was worthless and could not have been used as evidence.

Johnson said a complaint charges the father was ill and paid the money to avoid trouble with his son. The elder Rogers died Sept. 6.

The younger Rogers resigned his job last January and sold his interest in the family's truck-trailer manufacturing firm. He was arrested last Friday, pleaded innocent at a preliminary hearing and was released on $2,000 bond.

NEW FIFTH REPUBLIC TO BE PROCLAIMED SUNDAY IN THE OFFICIAL JOURNAL

By GEORGE MACARTHUR

PARIS (AP)—Premier de Gaulle has won his fight. Returns from the most sweeping referendum in French history today gave him a resounding personal triumph and a strong constitution for a new Fifth Republic.

The Fifth Republic will be proclaimed in the official journal next Sunday. And France will enter into a new, more powerful system of government so daring that many Frenchmen gasped at the conception while they voted their approval by a landslide Sunday.

Voters of continental France approved the new constitution by a margin of almost 4-1. Complete official tabulations in France showed 17,666,828 "yes" votes and 4,624,475 "no" votes. There was a record turnout of 84.9 per cent of France's registered voters. Counting all those who went to the polls, including some who cast blank ballots, the new constitution was approved by 78.5 per cent.

With one exception—French Guinea in West Africa—the overseas lands of the erstwhile French empire also backed the constitution to the hilt. This set them up with France on the world political stage as a "French community," a sort of global confederation, with commonwealth status and even independence waiting in the wings.

Even the "no" vote of independence-minded Guinea made little impression in the general massive outpouring of approval that exceeded even the most optimistic estimates.

The landslide raised the prospect that De Gaulle, the 67-year-old World War II hero restored to leadership in a rightist uprising last May, can almost write his own ticket to cure the sicknesses of this long ailing country. Chief of these is the four-year-old Algerian rebellion.

De Gaulle probably will become president, with powers that no French chief of state has enjoyed since Emperor Napoleon III was overthrown in 1870.

In the interval, France has deliberately maintained a strong legislature and a weak executive.

De Gaulle's dramatic victory was the worst electoral black eye the Communists have suffered in postwar France. The (Turn to Page Ten)

Ambridge Man Is Held In Girl's Disappearance

BEAVER, Pa. (AP)—Dist. Atty. Richard P. Steward of Beaver County said today Frank Senk, 25, of Ambridge is being held in connection with the disappearance of a 15-year-old high school girl.

Steward said Senk, who was taken into custody last Tuesday, is being held on a technical charge of suspicion of a felony. He said the information was sworn to by Baden police.

The girl, Rebecca Ann Triska of Baden, disappeared Sept. 19 after attending a dance in Ambridge.

Steward said police have "discovered impressive evidence which indicates to authorities that Senk must be viewed as a prime suspect until further discovery clears him of that indication."

Thor Chosen Over Army Jupiter for Mass Production

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times said today the Air Force's Thor has been chosen over the Army's Jupiter as the basic mass-produced 1,500-mile range ballistic missile weapon of the United States.

A dispatch to the newspaper from Dallas, Tex., said authoritative sources disclosed that a decision had been made to turn out two or possibly three squadrons of Jupiters at the most.

The sources quoted were at Dallas for the convention of the Air Force Assn., which ended Sunday.

There are said to be 15 missile launching platforms to a squadron, the Times added.

Over 16,000 Pupils in Two States Involved in Closings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

More than 16,000 youngsters were unable to attend public schools in Arkansas and Virginia today, bringing home to pupils and parents alike the full impact of the long and troubled struggle over integration.

The first wholesale closing of schools at Norfolk, Virginia's largest city, idled 10,000 children. At Little Rock, Ark., an estimated 3,400 were out while 2,750 were affected by the earlier shutdown of the Front Royal, Va., high school and elementary school at Charlottesville, Va. In some instances, particularly in Virginia, makeshift classes were being held in homes and rented buildings. But the over-all picture in portions of the two states was a grim one from the viewpoint of an adequate education and the acquiring of necessary credits to enter college.

Elsewhere in the Deep South hundreds of thousands of children continued to go to school in segregated classrooms while integrated classes were held in some border states.

Youths Admit To Depredations at Rural Cemeteries

Four Columbus area young men are free on $1,800 bond each today after pleading guilty to grave yard depredations.

Arraigned Friday on charges of malicious mischief were: Bert Stockton, 19, of RD 2, Columbus; George Gilbert, 19, of RD 1, Corry; Lawrence Nielsen, 18, of RD 2, Corry and Gail Winne, 18, of Columbus.

The quartet admitted to Corry State Troopers who apprehended them Thursday that they had run their car over graves and broken headstones in McCray Cemetery in Erie County, on the west side of Corry, and also in Spring Creek Cemetery.

Troopers estimated damages at $500 in McCray Cemetery alone. The mischief took place Sept. 15 and 16 as the group climaxed a drinking spree.

The young men also performed the dangerous prank of removing planks from two bridges near Sample Flats to the east of Corry in Columbus Township.

They pleaded guilty when arraigned before Peace Justice Floyd Marsh in Erie County, where they were freed on $1,500 bond, and JP Perry Mead of Columbus in Warren County, who released them on $300 bond. Erie County will handle them first, after which they face similar charges in Warren County Common Pleas Court.

The youths also damaged a Spring Creek Township road grader and knocked down some mailboxes. They were reportedly awaiting their enlistment call into the Air Force.

No Change in Time for Most Pennsylvanians

HARRISBURG (AP) — Most Pennsylvanians noticed no change in time today but some were thrown into confusing situations by the ending of Daylight Saving Time in some sections.

Most communities are scheduled to continue on the Daylight Saving Time until Oct. 26.

In many cases people live in areas which reverted to Eastern Standard Time work where daylight time is still in effect.

The same situation and its reverse applies to many school children.

Score Die in Accidents in State Over Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

At least 20 people died accidentally in Pennsylvania over the weekend, 14 of them in highway accidents. It was the highest death toll since the Labor Day Weekend.

One death was attributed indirectly to Saturday's torrential rain, a backlash of Hurricane Helene.

The victim, Calvin Leiss, 63, of Bernville was trying to move furniture from a trailer threatened by the rising waters of a stream near his Berks County home. He fell into a pool of water and drowned. Some sections of eastern Pennsylvania received up to four inches of rain.

Three of the highway accidents claimed two lives apiece.

In the non-highway accidents, a workman was killed by a boiler explosion, a boy was electrocuted when he touched a power line while climbing a tree, a young man, working under his jacked up

Most Dangerous Turns Cause Five Injuries

Five persons were injured in three automobile accidents which occurred in Warren County over the weekend at three extremely dangerous curves.

Listed in "good" condition at Warren General Hospital is Robert Hopkins, 18, of 29 West Main street, Youngsville. He sustained a slight concussion when the car in which he was riding failed to make the sharp curve at Irvine about 11:45 a. m. Saturday.

Another passenger, Ronald Sank, 18, of 9 West Main street, Youngsville, sustained head cuts. Both were in the east-bound car operated by Leonel Turner, 16, of 50 Railroad street, Youngsville. The machine hit the guard rails as it failed to negotiate the turn. Damage was estimated at $600.

Two drivers suffered body bruises and abrasions about 6 p. m. Friday when their cars collided on the S-overhead just east of Youngsville. Oliver Proper, 39, of Oil City, apparently crossed over the center line on one of the curves as he headed east, according to troopers.

Traveling west was George F. Wheeler, 54, of Erie. Damages were estimated at $200 to each vehicle. Neither driver was treated.

At 11:30 p. m. Friday, Ruth C. Brown, 31, of Sharon, suffered a contusion about the left eye when the northbound car operated by her husband, Matthew, aged 32, failed to make the sharp curve at Devil's Elbow at Kinzua. The car hit the guard rails. Mrs. Brown was treated at the hospital.

SCOTT

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Rep. Hugh Scott, Pennsylvania's Republican candidate for the U. S. Senate, says Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.) is "carrying the ball" for Scott's opponent, Gov. George M. Leader, in foreign policy discussions.

Scott replied Sunday to a letter from Clark in which Clark challenged Scott's defense of the Eisenhower Administration's policies in the Formosa Strait and in the Middle East.

REPUBLICAN

PITTSBURGH (AP)—George Bloom, state Republican chairman, charges that Mayor David L. Lawrence of Pittsburgh acted improperly in writing to an FCC commissioner regarding the allocation of a television channel in Pittsburgh.

"He (Mayor Lawrence) was absolutely wrong in what he did," Bloom declared Sunday in a television interview on KDKA's (Channel 2) "Sound off" program.

Lawrence is the Democratic candidate for governor. His name was brought up last week during a House subcommittee investigation of the Federal Communications Commission and the awarding of Channel 4 in Pittsburgh.

Lawrence acknowledged he had written a letter to a commissioner, but he said it was only to urge better television service for Pittsburgh. Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark) later issued a statement saying Lawrence had not acted improperly.

Bloom's charge followed one hurled Saturday at Lawrence by Meade Alcorn, the Republican national chairman.

DEMOCRATIC

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—"The Democratic party in Pennsylvania is growing larger and stronger each day as Republicans and independents join its ranks," Gov. George Leader declared today.

"The registration figures prove it beyond any doubt," Leader, the Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate, told an Erie County audience.

The governor said he thought a great many independents and Republicans were being attracted to the Democratic party because of the way the candidates were campaigning this year.

"We have been talking positively and constructively. We have been sticking to the facts. We have been talking sense in our discus-

SUCCESSOR TO SHERM ADAMS

Announcement over the weekend of the appointment by President Eisenhower of Maj. Gen. Wilton B. Persons as his chief assistant to succeed the resigned Sherman Adams, created only mild surprise, since it was generally anticipated by official Washington and political leaders that the selection would be made from among the numerous experienced members of what is generally recognized as "the White House family". The appointment came six days after Adams, right hand man to the Chief Executive, during most of his time in office, quit under fire, announcing his decision on a dramatic TV-radio broadcast.

Persons, a native of Montgomery, Ala., has been deputy assistant to the President since Sept. 5, 1953, and has served directly under Adams. Before that he was a special assistant to the President. He will receive a salary of $21,700.

Nicknamed "Jerry", Persons received a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering at Alabama Polytechnic Institute in 1916 and MBA Magna Cum Laude from the Harvard School of Business Administration 15 years later.

He is a graduate of the Command and General Staff School, 1938, the Air Corps Tactical School, 1939, and the Army War College, 1941.

Persons was commissioned a second lieutenant of Coast Artillery in 1917 and rose to major general in World War II—in 1944. He had served in the Allied Expeditionary Forces in World War I and on returning home became War Department liaison officer with the House of Representatives.

He was director of the legislative liaison for the office of secretary of defense in 1948. From 1949-51 he was superintendent of the Staunton Virginia Military Academy.

Later in 1951 he was recalled for duty as special assistant to Eisenhower when Eisenhower was Supreme commander of allied powers, Europe.

He was first appointed special assistant to the President Jan. 21, 1953 the day after Eisenhower was inaugurated for his first term.

Marlow Looks At TODAY'S NEWS

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

The vote through-out metropolitan France and her overseas departments Sunday has written fire to the Fourth Republic. As the French would say, long live the Fifth Republic.

The conception was the work of a master politician, and the new constitution is a most remarkable document. Gen. de Gaulle has achieved the astonishing feat of satisfying almost everybody in France—except the Communists.

The constitution now offers the country a chance to rescue itself from the hopeless mess engendered by the dogged political individualism of the average Frenchman. One wonders whether even the French will find a way of wrecking the chance.

There is a touch of grandeur in the bold sweep of this document which will stand as an immense tribute to the sagacity and political daring of Premier de Gaulle himself. He has given France a real chance of putting an end to the chronic instability which has brought an average of almost two governments a year in the 14 years since the country was liberated from the Nazis.

De Gaulle has been able to overcome the enraging French fear of the political strongman and the country now is headed for a strong central government. He has given France a chance too to overcome the unhealthy effects of splinter party activities. At last there will be a check on the Assembly's violent postures. The splinter groups no longer will be so easily able to wield a balance of power and thus exercise so large a measure of control over national policies.

The National Assembly will be elected by universal national suffrage. The Senate will be chosen by indirect vote. But the key to the future is in the executive.

The new basic law provides for election of the President by an electoral college made up of about 30,000 persons. These are the elected members of Parliament and the elected municipal councilors and mayors in some 38,000 communes. Some of the communes are tiny villages from which only the mayor will vote. In others the mayor and a number of councilors will be in the college.

The vote for President thus provides representation for the whole country. But the vote will be heavily weighted to the conservative side among the local councilors. The result thus indicates a strong, conservative chief executive, vested with important powers.

The hand of the master politician is evident in this. France's leftists and even centrists who longed for a government with sufficient staying power to carry out long-term policies can see their answer in the new constitution. But the conservatives and even the extreme right can hope they will have more representation in the government than the popular vote alone would provide.

According to the division of the National Assembly, the President will select the Premier. But the President will preside over meetings of the Cabinet, and he will have the power to dismiss the Premier. In addition there will be limitations on motions of censure even when such votes succeed in dislodging a premier.

De Gaulle's political daring also was evident in his challenge to the overseas territories. In the teeth of rising nationalist agitation all over the colonial and former colonial world the territories were told the constitutional referendum would decide whether they would secede from the French Union or seek their future in partnership with metropolitan France.

There will be many trials and challenges ahead for this new constitution. But the rest of the world will be watching with deep interest the birth of the Fifth Republic to judge whether at last France has come determined to grapple with the basic political problems which have been robbing her of her rightful stature among the world's great nations.

Here and There

"Fair Week" was being observed in Warren sixty years ago, opening on September 27, 1898 according to a first page article in the Evening Mirror which says "The annual county fair was ushered in today in a most auspicious manner. For several days past the weather forecasts indicated rain, but Societal Willis Cowan communicated with Jupiter Pluvius and from appearances it seems he brought more influence to bear upon the old chap than the weather man, for this has been an ideal day and several more of the same kind are promised. The first day of the fair is always set aside for arranging exhibits and putting things in readiness for the succeeding days and consequently little was afforded in the way of amusement. A good program is promised for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and these undoubtedly will be a good turnout of townspeople and hundreds of excursionists from the rural areas. A minor representative visited the grounds and found much activity in all directions. Floral hall is fast approaching that stage, where, to use the hackneyed expression, it is a veritable bower of beauty. The superintendents are Mrs. Dr. Hepburn and Mrs. Robt. Lynn. The exhibits are coming in rapidly and are being arranged in splendid taste. Since no entry fee is charged, there is no reason why there should not be an unusually large display of fancy articles. Several of the local merchants have artistic booths where wares are displayed. Smart, Silberberg & Metzger have a complete line of oriental rugs and pointers. A. A. Davis & Co. are on hand with a varied and complete display. T. O. Slater & Co. have an artistic corner where ranges, cooking stoves, utensils and other articles to be found in a well ordered hardware store are to be seen. O. H. Hunter & Son offer one of the prettiest displays, comprising a complete assortment of novelties in dry goods which are arranged in a manner which cannot fail to catch the eye. E. D. Mattison, of the Globe Tailoring Co., is there with a line of samples, and Smith's Business College are advertising their business in this manner. Several more concerns will have exhibits arranged before Wednesday. Thus far there have not been as many livestock entries as in past years, but the management is confident that there will be a very creditable display by Wednesday. Wednesday has been designated as "Republican Day." Col. W. A. Stone, Republican candidate for Governor, Senator Boase Penrose, and other noted speakers will be present and make addresses. The speaking will start at two o'clock from in front of the grand stand, where a covered and gaily decorated stand has been erected. All who desire to hear the great Republican principles discussed are invited to be on hand to hear the able orators. There are also two horse races scheduled for Wednesday afternoon, viz. 2:27 class race, purse $200, and half mile run, purse $75. A really meritorious feature of the fair is the truck riding by Mr. and Mrs. Parquie, of Washington, D. C. They give an exhibition each afternoon on the track.

Uncle Sam Still Helps Out With School Hot Lunches

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—(NEA)—The U. S. school lunch program began its 13th year of operation this fall, feeding about 12 million elementary and high school youngsters every day.

This represents about a third of the 36 million pupils enrolled. Maybe two-thirds of them patronize school lunch rooms part of the time but aren't customers every day. Anyway, 19 billion lunches were served last year.

The hot lunch in today's modern, centralized and double-shift schools is such an accepted thing that it is now taken for granted. But over the years it has grown into a 700 to 800-million-dollar big business.

Over half a billion dollars of this is purchases of food by 75,000 schools in their local markets. It represents a little over half of the 115,000 elementary and 20,000 secondary public and private schools open last year.

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT participation in school lunch programs will amount to over 200 million dollars this year. Contrast this with the 40 million dollars appropriated out of 180 million dollars authorized for first-year operations of the new U. S. national defense education act.

In its 1935 beginnings, the school lunch program was a bowl of hot soup dished out to underfed children of the depression by WPA relief workers. There was a period of watered soup scandals. Then Congress picked up the school lunch idea and used it as a vehicle for getting rid of surplus farm products. It was more farm relief than child welfare.

When NEW LEGISLATION made the school lunch program permanent in 1947, however, it specified that all meals served should give the youngsters a balanced diet.

U. S. government surplus food contributions to this program reached a peak of 133 million dollars in 1957 when there was lots of cheap pork, turkey and dairy products.

When surplus food contributions dropped to 76 million dollars last year, cries rained on Congress from all over.

Consequently, this year's appropriations earmarked 35 million dollars for the purchase of meat and other high protein foods to restore balanced diet requirements.

Another 15 million dollars were earmarked for diet deficiency items rich in vitamins A and C.

These two specials will be supplemented this year by nearly 94 million dollars in cash grants to the states, plus whatever will be the value of surplus wheat, corn meal, rice and dairy products available from CCC stocks.

IN GENERAL, three dollars come from sources within the state for every dollar from Washington. School lunches aren't given away. They're sold on the average of 25 cents a meal. No youngster is required to buy school lunches. For children from families who can't afford to pay, the lunches are free or sold at reduced cost. Churches and service clubs pay for most of this cost.

An important byproduct of the program is that it teaches youngsters how to eat properly and creates a demand at home for more nutritive foods.

One curious sidelight of the program is that while there is no vocal opposition to federal government aid to school lunch programs, there is a great to-do over the idea of federal contribution to aid education.

NO ONE IS PERFECT

The majority of cancers of the throat and tongue can be cured, provided they are recognized early. But the disease is treacherous because it may smoulder for months before causing symptoms.

A 60 year old artist developed a sore throat and saw a physician two days later. The throat was red, the tonsils were slightly enlarged, and a few swollen glands were felt in the neck. An appropriate remedy was prescribed.

When pain failed to disappear at the end of a week, the artist returned to his physician, who looked into the throat again and noted that the tonsil on the right side was a firmer than usual. A malignancy was suspected and the patient was referred to a specialist. He found cancer involving the tongue and throat, in addition to the tonsil.

The man's life was saved with an extensive operation and X-ray treatments. Plastic surgery was done to restore his original features after healing occurred. This large cancer had existed for many months before symptoms developed. Some of us might have allowed the condition to go on for another month or two, provided discomfort was not severe. To delay is human but it may mean the difference between life and death.

There are many variations to this story but the lesson is the same. Serious complaints may come in simple disguise. Ill fitting dentures are not the only cause of pain in the mouth—and in the case discussed they were only coincidental.

Bleeding from cancer of the rectum frequently is blamed on hemorrhoids. A persistent diarrhea that occurs after a trip to Mexico or Spain may be blamed on tainted food or water when in reality a malignancy is responsible. Cancer consciousness is the only way to overcome these problems.

TOMORROW. Dead spaces in the lungs.

Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—How the man of modest means meets his financial problems during the economy's ups and downs—and what he thinks of the chances of good times or bad—often can be learned in the small loan departments of the banks and finance companies.

Their records of demand for loans, difficulties of collections, and volume of delinquencies reflect trends among a large segment of citizens—just as the records of the millions and billions that industry borrows, give a clue to the course of business activity and thinking.

Today small loan patterns across the nation show marked regional variations—both as to the financial health of the citizen in the middle and lower income brackets and his confidence or caution in viewing the future.

This is underlined in a survey of finance companies in 15 cities across the nation made on the eve of Tuesday's opening of the National Consumer Finance Assn's meeting in Miami Beach.

The Eastern seaboard shows less response in consumer attitudes to business recovery than some other sections. Many industrial areas of the Middle West hard hit by the recession, are feeling much better but still very cautious. Across the Mississippi a definite upturn is reported. The Far West is only a trifle less optimistic and willing to borrow again.

All unite on one thing—money for the finance companies to borrow in order to lend to you is getting tighter and interest rates seem headed back to their 1957 peaks.

In the East Albany, N. Y. reports no increase in demand for loans except for vacations, although the average customer isn't as pessimistic now about job security or an imminent third world war. An Ithaca, N. Y. finance company has added to its staff to cope with increasing collection problems. Its potential customers are still very cautious and adding to savings rather than borrowing.

In Upper Darby, Pa., the high cost of living is blamed for collection troubles and heavier than usual net losses. The average customer there shows further resistance to high prices and large debt with loan demand mostly for emergency needs. Portsmouth, Va., hopes loan demand will increase in the latter part of the year.

It's already there in Washington, D. C., with the consumer showing more confidence and willingness to incur debt.

Tampa, Fla., says consumer confidence lags behind stock market activity, with borrowers still taking a wait and see attitude. In the Middle West Jackson, Mich., reports collections in that state still a serious problem, but customers more optimistic now. In Columbus, Ohio, delinquencies are higher, following the pattern of 1950 and 1954, but loan demand is rising now—though more to buy services than durables.

Evansville, Ind., sees some measure of loan volume upturn but little improvement in collections. It reports some customers worrying about coming inflation and talking of borrowing to buy now to beat price hikes.

Chicago reports improvement in the credit worthiness of applicants and a steady if moderate improvement in cash collections.

Across the Mississippi St. Louis says collections are improving.

"You ought to see how many clothes so-and-so has. Her parents buy her anything she wants."

"None of the other kids' parents make them earn their allowances."

"If you make all A's the other kids think you're a square."

"Everybody goes steady. What's wrong with it?"

"Other kids' parents don't ask them where they're going every time they leave home."

"Why do I have to get in at a certain time? It makes me feel like a baby to tell the kids I have to go home, when most of them can stay out as late as they want to."

"What's the matter? Don't you trust me?"

"What makes you so sure it's wrong, when practically nobody else sees anything wrong in it?"

"But I promised to drive our car. How was I supposed to know you and Dad were planning to go somewhere?"

"It's not dangerous, honest. The trouble with you, Mom, is you're always thinking of what might happen."

If there's a teen-ager in your family you're sure to hear all or some of those arguments—some of them over and over. So have your answers ready ahead of time if you don't want to be outtalked.

Reception for Pastor and Wife

SUGAR GROVE—Rev. and Mrs. Robert Williams, who has been returned to the Sugar

Grove Free Methodist church for the third year, were given a reception at the parsonage on Jamestown street. The weekly prayer meeting which preceded the affair was led by Mrs. Russell Gustafson.

Mrs. George Craker, in charge of the reception, presented the program, which included a talk by Rev. H. P. Thomas and a song by the boys of the Young People's and Intermediate classes, accompanied by Ronald Craker on the guitar. Mrs. Thomas gave an interesting talk on "The Preacher's Wife". Mrs. Theodore Allenson and Mabel Reese sang a duet.

A purse of money and other gifts were presented by Mrs. Allenson, with Rev. Williams responding. In conclusion, refreshments were served.

Country Club Women End
Successful 1958 Season

A most successful season for women golfers ended with the final dinner at Conewango Valley Country Club. Mrs. T. W. Fisher was hostess, assisted by Mrs. Edward Branch, with Mrs. Robert Voigt in charge of hula-hoops. Tables were arranged with an abundance of autumn flowers and trailing ivy for the delicious dinner.

Mrs. Robert Donaldson, golf chairman, thanked her hard-working committee, as well as the golfers for their contagious enthusiasm in the face of almost continuous inclement weather. She gave great credit to members of the club staff for their cheerful helpfulness.

Mr. Donaldson's committee was composed of Mrs. Sidney W. Blackman and Mrs. John Carter, who eased golfers from the former handicapping system to the present PGA with the utmost facility. Mrs. H. L. Banghart, in charge of NPWGA matches; Mrs. David Beaty, publicity; the monthly chairman, Mrs. Gasten Hamilton; Mrs. Merle Kremer; Mrs. W. O. Lawson; Mrs. James Kannen; Mrs. William Rice.

Mrs. Fred Donovan, who engineered the junior golfers through a bang-up season; Mrs. A. F. Yerg and Mrs. Dean Anderson, who chose the prizes; Mrs. Robert Voigt, in charge of the opening dinner; Mrs. Grace Siegfried, who arranged card parties; Mrs. Blackman, Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Sedwick, the rules committee.

The golf event for the final day was a five-hole cross country match, which cannot be described, must be experienced, the scrambling of holes resulting in much mirth and utmost confusion. Hula-hoops were the prizes and were demonstrated by a number of golfers in a manner proving their proficiency in more than one sport.

Results were: Highest individual score, Mrs. J. A. Fino; lowest, Mrs. Homer Culbertson; most putts, Mrs. Alan Blair; fewest, Mrs. John Carter; highest score on pitch green, Mrs. John Newmaker; highest score on first hole, Mrs. W. Scott Calderwood; highest score on second hole, Mrs. H. M. Wildblood; lowest, Mrs. Robert Voigt; highest team score, Mrs. R. M. Camp, Mrs. John Larson, Mrs. Robert Walsh and Mrs. T. C. Atwell.

Mrs. Yerg presented year-end prizes, among which were those donated by A. C. Kirberger and Son, Emblem Oil Company; Mrs. J. L. Blair, Mrs. Harold Banghart, Mrs. David Beaty, Mrs. Jeral Angove and Mrs. Allen Gibson.

Mrs. Harry Conarro, Jr. was winner in the championship

Division 1—Mrs. W. C. Fuellhart, winner; Mrs. David Beaty, runner-up; Mrs. Melvin Keller, consolation.

Division 2—Mrs. H. L. Banghart, winner; Mrs. Robert Donaldson, runner-up; Mrs. A. F. Yerg, consolation.

Division 3—Mrs. H. F. Schmidt, winner; Mrs. W. Scott Calderwood, runner-up; Mrs. Howard Lauffenberger, consolation.

Round robin, Mrs. Albert Eberly; no putt greens on tournament days, Mrs. Melvin Keller; most percentage in improvement, Carol Blackman; goat prize, Mrs. W. O. Lawson; low yearly gross, Mrs. Harry Conarro, Jr.

Low net yearly points: Division 1, Mrs. W. O. Lawson; Division 2, Mrs. Francis Ericsson; Division 3, Mrs. W. Scott Calderwood.

Low gross yearly finger, with 59, Mrs. Harry Conarro, Jr. Low net yearly finger: Division 1, Mrs. Homer Culbertson; Division 2, Mrs. William Rice; Division 3, Mrs. W. H. Wright.

Fewest putts on tournament days, Division 1, Mrs. W. O. Lawson; Division 2, Mrs. Jeral Angove; Division 3, Mrs. Fred Martin.

July Handicap Tournament: Division 1—winner, Carol Blackman; runner-up, Mrs. E. G. Hamilton; consolation, Mrs. T. W. Fisher. Division 2—winner, Mrs. William Rice; runner-up, Mrs. David Beaty; consolation, Mrs. William Walters. Division 3—winner, Mrs. W. Scott Calderwood; runner-up, Mrs. Fred Martin; consolation, Mrs. Merle Kremer.

Mrs. Donaldson was given a rising vote of thanks for her tireless work in making the golf season a smooth-running and pleasant one.

Mrs. Helen Pendleton Rockwell, club champion in 1924, "passed the torch" to Mrs. Harry Conarro, Jr., current winner of top honors, presenting her with a stunning silver tray as permanent Championship Trophy, to be held yearly by the winner and passed on to her successor.

And, always, with the nostalgic memories of a pleasant summer too soon over, is the thought: "Ah, wind, if winter comes, can spring (and golf) be far behind?"

SOCIETY

MRS. ROBERT S. MCKOWN

White gladioli and greens decorated the altar of Clarendon Methodist church September 27, when the Rev. Hubert Jicha, Jr., performed a double ring ceremony to unite in marriage Doris Lorraine Bauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred August Bauer of Clarendon, and Robert Steward McKown, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Ross McKown, Oklahoma City, Okla.

Carroll A. Fowler was at the organ to play traditional wedding music: "Wedding Prayer," "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Barbara Mamon, Pittsburgh.

The bride's gown was of crepe-de-chine silk bombazine tulle, fashioned princess style, the sweetheart neckline applied with re-embroidered alencon lace touched with seed pearls and sequins, the long fitted sleeves tapering over the hands. The bouffant carriage skirt was accented with a lace-appliqued butterfly bow at the back and fell into a graceful chapel train.

A Queen of Scots frame held an heirloom lace mantilla, worn by the bride's mother on her wedding day. The bridal bouquet of blue butterfly orchids, circled with white roses and showered with ivy streamers and Stephanotis, was cascade shape.

Escorted by her father, she had as maid of honor her sister, Mary Bauer, Clarendon; as bridesmaids, Helen McKown, Oklahoma City, Mrs. Edward Sweet of Warren and Victoria Argana, LeRoy, N. Y.

Attendants were gowned alike in royal glaze tulle, cocktail length, and styled with sweetheart neckline, cap sleeves, and sheath-type skirt having pleated back fullness. Matching blue feathered bandeaux held circular veils, and white wristlets completed their ensembles. Each carried a pink duchess rose, with ivy and Stephanotis streamers.

Completing the bridal party, David Ross McKown was best man for his son; ushers were George McKown, Oklahoma City; William Helmer, Coldbrook, N. Y., and Dr. Lee Riley, Baltimore, Md.

The bride's mother wore a white orchid with an opera blue pure silk barthea dress; Mrs. McKown had a pink orchid with a Dior blue dress of French satin.

The reception and wedding dinner for 100 guests was served at the Woman's Club, where a three-tier wedding cake was topped with pink roses and greens. Mrs. George Kinkol had charge of the guest book; Mrs. James Pales and Mrs. Richard Carlson presided at the punch bowls; Orrie Beebe presided organ music.

Guests were present from Oklahoma City; LeRoy and Coldbrook, N. Y.; Pittsburgh, Rural Valley, Grove City, Douglassville; and Baltimore, Md.

When the couple left for a honeymoon in the Adirondack Mountains, the bride was wearing a blue tweed suit, with white accessories. Upon their return, they will reside in Oklahoma City.

Mrs. McKown is a graduate of Warren High School and Mercyhurst College in Erie. Mr. McKown is an alumnus of University of Oklahoma and, at present, is associated with the McKown and McWilliams Insurance Agency.

The bride-elect was honored at a luncheon given by Mrs. Julien Charles Monnet, Norman, Oklahoma; coffees given by Mrs. David Ross McKown, Mrs. Thomas Sorey and Mrs. Francis Mulky, Oklahoma City; showers given by her roommates in Pittsburgh, Mrs. Edward Sweet and Victoria Argana, Mrs. John Hickey and Mrs. Charles Henry.

Loal and county unions will be represented at the State WCTU when sessions are held at Chambersburg October 6-10, inclusive. Mrs. Alberta Trautfer, Warren county president, and Mrs. Bessie Johnson, county vice president, with Warren Central Union officers, will be driving to the sessions October 7, returning on Friday.

They will welcome any local presidents or alternates who wish to accompany them. Local unions are urged to send representatives, to bring back information and inspiration, and anyone interested in accompanying the above officers may call 3255-R.

Pleasant Township Girl Scout Neighborhood Committee will meet at 8:00 this evening at Pleasant fire hall to discuss and plan Girl Scout and Brownie Activities.

Bride in December

—Stokes Studio

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Tutar, 15 Ludlow street, announce the engagement of their only daughter, Margaret, to James Conti, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Conti, 42 Walnut street, Jamestown, N. Y. Miss Tutar is a graduate of Millard Fillmore Hospital, Buffalo, N. Y., and is presently on the staff at Warren State Hospital. Mr. Conti is a graduate of Lock Haven State and University of Buffalo, and is a member of the faculty of Lincoln Junior High School in Jamestown. A December wedding is being planned.

Betrothals

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sechrist, 7 Melrose Place, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Doris, to Russell Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Wagner, Wilmington, Del. The wedding will take place November 29, 1958, in St. Stephen's Lutheran church in Wilmington.

The October meeting of Court Warren 834, Catholic Daughters of America, will take place on Wednesday, at 8:00 p. m. in St. Joseph's hall.

Following the business meeting a talk will be given by Mrs. A. B. Chiaramonte on her recent trip to Europe.

The Day of Recollection is set for Sunday, October 26. All the Catholic women of Warren county are invited to attend.

Grand Regent Nancy Shaffer extends an invitation to all Catholic women over 18 to join this organization and membership forms may be obtained from members or by calling her—3365-W. Prospects are reminded that they must have these forms returned no later than the November meeting. The class will be initiated in January.

The refreshment chairman for this meeting are Josephine Briggs, Catherine Haben and Reda Wright.

Diamond Grange No. 2027 will hold its annual Booster Night program at 8:00 p. m. Tuesday. All Grangers are cordially invited, members being urged to bring at least one guest.

There will be a brief business meeting, after which the program will be presented by the lecturer, Mrs. Flossie Schweitzer. Principal guest for the evening will be William Brooks, master of Warren-Forest County Pomona Grange, who is an able and interesting speaker. Other features of the program will be musical numbers and activities for group participation.

To conclude, refreshments will be served.

The monthly meeting of Dickson Class, of First Presbyterian church, was held at the home of Jerry Smith, 16 Jefferson avenue. The program consisted of a talk by Boys' Probation Officer, John Stachowiak, and devotions led by Helen DeLong. Hostesses were Dorothy Buffon, Millie Garrison, Vera Yeagle.

Junior Rehearsal Junior Choir of Grace Methodist church will hold its first fall rehearsal at 3:45 p. m. Wednesday in the choir room. All boys and girls of the Sunday school, third grade to Beaty School age, who really enjoy singing, are welcome to become members of this group.

WCS CHANGE Lander—WCS members are advised their regular meeting will be held at 8:00 p. m. Wednesday, instead of at the regular time. Ruth and Norma Mills will be in charge of the program.

The Mature Parent

Encourage Child to Voice His Anger, Not Conceal It

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

That Saturday morning, because his own ball mitt was ripped, Bud decided to use his kid brother's. Dave caught him with it. There was a scuffle that ended with Bud in possession of the mitt. Crying with helpless rage, Dave sought his father for retribution. His father wouldn't listen. "Can't you see I'm changing a tire?" he shouted. "Beat it! I can't drive downtown with this flat."

At dinner Dave had to be called four times to the table. He dawdled so long over bedtime that his father lost his temper again. Later when his mother called, "Is your light out, Dave?" he took so long to answer that she had to go upstairs to check his light herself.

Dave was obstructing his parents' expectations of him in retaliation for their resistance of his expectations of them.

Children often resort to this kind of protest. When they do, the simple intelligent thing is to say, "If you're so mad, why don't you say so instead of pretending you don't hear me?"

Otherwise they may develop a habit of expressing their anger at us by resisting behavior instead of by resisting words.

This is an unfortunate development.

When a child first resorts to protest by action, he's usually aware of his wish to punish us. But if he's not encouraged to put the anger into words, he may begin to lose his awareness of the wish. Gradually, he begins to give us stubborn behavior automatically. Whenever he feels in the least pushed or coerced, he'll immediately respond with resistance out of his accumulated need to triumph over us.

Then it may be too late to get him to put his anger into words. When we say, "If you're mad, why don't you say so?", he'll just glare at us sullenly as though he didn't know what we are talking about.

We've all known adults who seem unable to do anything that others expect of them. They are the people who are always late for appointments; who make promises without knowing they don't intend to keep them; who may end by an inability to act even in their own behalf lest the act please somebody else.

We don't want our little boys and girls to become prisoners of this kind of paralysis.

Bear Lake Area Boys Hurt, One Critically

A 21-year-old Bear Lake man was reported in "critical" condition today at Jamestown General Hospital where he was taken early Saturday morning after the car in which he was riding rolled over an embankment at Kimball Stand on Route 60 near Gerry, N. Y.

Paul Smith sustained a skull fracture, brush burns, lip lacerations and loosened teeth. He was a passenger in a car operated by his brother, Roger Smith, 18, who was also hospitalized.

The operator told police he was passing a car when he saw a curve approaching. As brakes were applied the vehicle went out of control and rolled down an embankment. The driver sustained possible fractured ribs and pelvis, injury to both knees and left chest. His condition is "fairly good."

A third passenger, John Jensen, 20, of RD 1, Columbus, suffered a possible skull fracture, chest abrasions. His condition is "fair."

The car was demolished.

SNOW 59 YEARS AGO

F. A. Mitchell, 522 Conewango avenue, recalled today that it was 59 or 60 years ago today that the section was visited by a heavy autumn snow storm that caused considerable damage to trees and foliage. Since there is no mention of such a storm in the Evening Mirror file of September, 1898, it is presumed that it must have been the year before.

FALL ASSERTS ITSELF

Less than a week old, fall asserted itself in highly mature fashion overnight as temperature dipped to an unofficial 26 degrees in at least one rural section to the north of Warren. Gil Reier, local weather observer, reported the mercury stood at 34 in the borough. A dense fog throughout the county was lifting early this morning as the misty curtain rose to reveal a fine fall day.

News of Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS
AP Motion Picture Editor

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — What makes a funnyman funny? Take the case of Louis Nye, the hep comic who helps brighten the Steve Allen hour. He is one of those rare comedians who can evoke laughter with the simplest of lines or even his mere appearance on the screen.

Yet he is no life-of-the-party type. Few real comedians are. Here for a couple of Hollywood originations of the Allen show, he discussed comedy with the serious articulation of a Madison Avenue ad man such as he has portrayed on TV.

To Nye, getting laughs is a matter of serious analysis of human foibles. He began early, playing in summer stock and on radio. More often than not, he played an intense juvenile. But the Army made him realize that comedy was his strong suit.

"I was stationed at a camp near a wild town in Missouri," he recreation hall, and I had to make the entertainment good enough to keep the young soldiers from going into town. It was a challenge and I worked hard at it. For the first time, I realized I had the ability to make people laugh."

He got more valuable experience in the Army by touring with "Winged Victory" and entertaining in hospitals. At war's end, he went back to radio and night clubs but with only mediocre success.

Fortunately, the Allen show came along and Nye was raised from merely reliable to a sure-fire laugh-getter with his Gordon Hathaway and other guises.

The question is: Where does he go from here?

"I'm under contract to the Allen show," he remarked, "but it's a strange kind of a contract. They can break it or I can break it any time. I like working with Steve and I hope to continue. I'll be happy to come out to Hollywood when Steve brings the show here next year—if they ask me."

GIVE THE UNITED WAY Through Your Community Chest

Your ONE Gift to Warren's RED FEATHER Campaign Provides for These TEN Agencies Serving the Warren Area ---

This year your Community Chest must raise $83,210 to support the ten local health, welfare and youth organizations which year after year provide valuable service — not only in Warren Borough but throughout the county. This amount is 12% higher than a year ago and is urgently needed to enable our own agencies to continue to give the kind of service that you want them to. Ask yourself the question — "What would Warren County be like without the Community Chest Organizations?" The campaign is starting now. Make plans to do your share so that everybody benefits. Remember your one gift supports ten agencies — it makes sense to give help where help is needed. Help once for all through your Community Chest in Warren.

High Honor Is Accorded Local Photographer

W. Treat Davidson, 410 Fifth Avenue, West, has been honored by being named an Associate of the Photographic Society of America, world's largest photographic organization, "for his proficiency in color and nature photography and for his outstanding work in the illustration of school and science books." The award was announced yesterday at the close of the Society's Silver Anniversary Convention in Philadelphia.

An internationally recognized expert in photographing fish, birds and insects in action, Mr. Davidson has had pictures published by National Geographic, Life, the British Broadcasting Company, and numerous other magazines, newspapers and Sunday supplements in the United States and Great Britain.

Last year, "Fresh Water Game Fish of North America," with text and illustrations by Mr. Davidson, was published by Nelson Doubleday as part of the Audubon Nature Program. In addition, his pictures have appeared in many school and science books prepared by leading textbook publishers here and abroad.

Because of the great difficulties involved in taking photographs of wild life in action, Mr. Davidson has designed and built much of the elaborate automatic equipment he uses in this work.

A founder-member of the Warren Color Club, of which he was an officer for several years, Mr. Davidson has exhibited his color slides extensively in photographic salons and has won more than a dozen medals and other honors for them. He has judged local photographic competitions and speaks frequently before civic and other groups in this area.

Now retired, Mr. Davidson was advertising manager of Struthers Wells Corporation, and in that capacity frequently supervised the production of industrial motion pictures and the taking of many still pictures for advertising use.

Stork Visits St. Marys Couple During Storm

CHERRY POINT, N.C. (AP)—Two-day-old Christine Mair Lühr, daughter of Cpl. and Mrs. M. A. Lühr of St. Marys, Pa., was born under trying circumstances.

Christine entered the world at Cherry Point Naval Air Station Hospital Saturday night while Hurricane Helene was kicking up 90-mile-an-hour winds outside. The doctors had to use flashlights during the delivery because all electric power was knocked out.

OBITUARIES

FUNERAL INFORMATION WILL BE FOUND UNDER ANOTHER HEADING

WILLIAM L. ZUVER
Funeral services were held at 2:00 p. m. today in Tionesta for William L. Zuver, aged 50 and lifelong resident of that community who died in Oil City Hospital about 4:00 p. m. Friday. The Rev. Edward McKee, pastor of Tionesta Presbyterian church, officiated and interment followed in Fairview cemetery at Pleasantville.

Mr. Zuver was born in Tionesta August 1, 1908, the son of Lee L. and Agnes Brannis Zuver, and was employed in the Forest County Branch of Warren National Bank in Tionesta. He was an elder in the Presbyterian church.

Surviving is a sister, Miss Grace K. Zuver, Tionesta.

JAMES M. SHUGARTS
SHEFFIELD—Funeral services were held at 2:00 p. m. Saturday for James M. Shugarts, 52 Mill street, with the Rev. Jack Parsons, of First Methodist church, officiating. Serving as bearers for interment in Forest Lawn cemetery at Kane were William Veldner, Wayne Nordine, Ronald Nolder, William Cribbs, Fred L. and Lester Shugarts.

Attending from away were Mrs. Charles Nordine, Wayne Nordine, Kane; Mrs. Anna Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Nolder, Mrs. Olive Kirk, Luthersburg; Mrs. Grace Cribbs, William Cribbs, DuBois; Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Shugarts, Oil City; Lester Shugarts, Titusville; Mrs. Beers, Ludlow.

RICHARD E. OLARK
Very largely attended services were held at 2:00 p. m. Friday for Richard Earl Clark, 16 Park street, who died early Wednesday in Warren General Hospital. Father Joseph Seyboldt, pastor of Holy Redeemer church, officiated and the following served as bearers for interment in St. Joseph's cemetery: Albert Seymour, Jr., William Smith, Laurence Owen, Floyd Ruhl, Harold Keys and Willis Loding. Named as honorary bearers were John Stevenson and Allen Troutman.

Many beautiful flowers bespoke the sympathy of friends and fellow-workers and the large number attending included the following from away: Mrs. Bernadine Klipsic, Boca Raton, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, Meadville; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Clark, Mrs. Helen Caldwell, Mrs. Laura Jane Koscic, Mrs. Mabel Shortis, Townville.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Anderson, Mrs. Linda Clark, Titusville; Mr.

and Mrs. Raymond Clark, Garland; Mrs. Autumn Gill, Conneautville; Floyd Ruhl, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Clark, Carol and Patti Clark, Mrs. Faye Manross, Jean Manross, Mrs. June Nunes, John Broussard, Erie; Mrs. Bernita Marsh, Pleasantville; Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Blastic, Mr. and Mrs. James Cunane, Philadelphia.

MRS. EDITH P. ARNER
Dr. H. H. Barr, retired Methodist minister, conducted funeral services at 2:00 p. m. Sunday for Mrs. Edith Painter Arner, of 107 Russell street, widow of Lewis Arner, who died Thursday. Interment followed beside her husband in Warren County Memorial Park at Starbrick, with Charles Berry, Norman Johnson, James Weaver, Harold LaPoint, Robert Haslet and James Miller, Jr., serving as bearers. Members of Goodwill Cleaners Class of Grace Methodist church, of which Mrs. Arner was a member, attended as a group.

Attending the rites from away were Mrs. Blanche Smith, Sheffield; Mr. and Mrs. Alec Badenoch, Polly Badenoch, Mrs. Elizabeth Badenoch, Marlenville; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Barber, Mrs. Blanche Rupp, Union City; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Vockroth, Titusville; Mrs. Florence Lauffenberger, Bradford; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sigworth, Tionesta.

O. C. STRASBAUGH
SHEFFIELD — Charles C. Strasbaugh, aged 85, died Saturday at Warren General Hospital, where he had been admitted two days earlier. He had been ailing for the past six months and had been seriously ill during the past week.

Mr. Strasbaugh was born in Orrtanna, Adams county, March 16, 1873, and was preceded in death 19 years ago by his first wife, Anna Steinberg. He came to Sheffield in 1948 and, on May 9, 1950, was united in marriage with Mrs. Emily Sprague, of Sheffield, who survives him.

Also surviving are five stepsons, Terrance Sprague, Washington, D. C.; Matthew Sprague, Rye, N. Y.; Vincent Sprague, Sheffield; Edward Sprague, Masury, O.; and Maurice Sprague, Dallas, Texas; a brother, Albert Strasbaugh, of Orrtanna.

Mr. Strasbaugh was a member of St. Anthony's Roman Catholic church, and Father Francis Tushum recited the parish rosary at the funeral home at 7:30 p. m. Sunday. Today, removal was made to Gettysburg, where the rosary will be recited at 8:00 p. m. Tuesday. Funeral services will be held at 10:00 a. m. Wednesday in St. Ignatius of Loyola church in Duncannon Valley, with Father Louis Yeager officiating and interment following in St. Ignatius cemetery.

CLEVE J. RICHARDS
Cleve J. Richards, 69 year old resident of 306 High street, Youngsville, died at Warren General Hospital at 1:15 p. m. Sunday, having been in failing health for some time.

Born in Garland August 1, 1889, Mr. Richards had spent his entire lifetime in this area and retired only recently after having been custodian of Youngsville Schools for 35 years. He was a member of Brokenstraw Grange.

Surviving are his wife, Daisy, and four sons; Jay, of Youngsville; Keith, Pittsburgh; Elwood, Cleveland; Jack, Glendora, Calif.; also a brother, Bert Richards, Youngsville; six grandchildren, several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, John and Nettie Richards; also a brother, Harry, and a sister, Lula Moore.

The Rev. F. Eugene Donelson, of Youngsville EUB church, will conduct funeral services at 2:00 p. m. Wednesday, with interment following in Warren County Memorial Park at Starbrick.

HENRY N. REIST
Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p. m. Tuesday in the Episcopal church at State College, Pa., for Henry N. Reist, who died Sunday at that place. Mr. Reist formerly lived in Warren, serving as county agent from 1915 to 1927. More recently retired, he had been in the extension service of Pennsylvania State University for some years.

Surviving are three daughters and a son. His wife preceded him in death several years ago.

HARRY B. CARLSON
Word has been received in Warren that Harry B. Carlson, former Brookston resident, died of a heart attack at 3:45 a. m. today at his home in Pampa, Texas.

Aged 69, Mr. Carlson was a graduate of Sheffield High School and attended the Hoff Business College in Warren. In his later years, he has been a driller in Texas oil fields.

Surviving are his wife, Mary Donovan Carlson, and the following sisters: Jennie B. Anderson, Sheffield; Alma Decker and Ethel Lauffer, Warren; Mrs. L. E. Deam, Wichita, Kans.; also one niece and one nephew.

Services and interment will take place in Pampa.

THOMAS G. JACOBS
Funeral services will be held in Franklin at 2:00 p. m. Tuesday for Thomas G. Jacobs, 84 year old former Warren resident, who died at 6:40 a. m. Saturday at the Masonic Home at Elizabethtown, where he had lived since 1953. The Rev. Roger V. Naftzger, pastor of First Presbyterian church of Franklin, will officiate and interment will be made in Franklin cemetery.

Mr. Jacobs was born at Millbrook, Pa., on January 31, 1864, and, in his earlier years, was a salesman in Warren. Later, he was high constable for Warren borough and, for many years, was constable in the seventh ward. It is recalled he built the home at 24 Crescent Park.

Mr. Jacobs was a member and past master of North Star Lodge No. 241, F. and A. M.; member and past commander of Warren Commandery No. 63 Knights Templar; member of Occidental Chapter, Royal Arch Masons; also of Couderport Consistory and of Zen Zent Temple.

Preceded in death by his wife, he leaves two children, Mrs. Catherine J. Allen, Orlando, Fla., and Thomas T. Jacobs, Elizabethtown, N. Y.; also a sister, Mrs. Cora Haslet, Worcester, Mass.

Funerals

CLEVE J. RICHARDS
Friends will be received at the Young Funeral Home in Youngsville at the usual hours, starting this evening, and services will be held there at 2:00 p. m. Wednesday. The Rev. F. Eugene Donelson, of Youngsville EUB church, will officiate and interment will follow in Warren County Memorial Park at Starbrick.

Skeleton Clears Up Man's Disappearance

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A skeleton that lay unnoticed for years has been identified as the remains of a Greene County man who state police say apparently shot himself.

The skeleton was identified Sunday as that of Dale Watson, who disappeared from his home at Dilliner R.D. 1, in 1938 when he was 23 years of age.

The skeleton was found a week ago along a rural road near Uniontown. A bullet hole was found in the skull and a revolver was found nearby. Identification was made through dental records.

Men in Service

ABOARD ESSEX
Navy news dispatches coming from Formosa report Michael R. Gross, radioman third class and son of Mrs. Irene Gross, 302 Water street, is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Essex, which has been operating with the Seventh Fleet off the coast of Formosa since the second week of September.

Born in Garland August 1, 1889, Mr. Richards had spent his entire lifetime in this area and retired only recently after having been custodian of Youngsville Schools for 35 years. He was a member of Brokenstraw Grange.

Surviving are his wife, Daisy, and four sons; Jay, of Youngsville; Keith, Pittsburgh; Elwood, Cleveland; Jack, Glendora, Calif.; also a brother, Bert Richards, Youngsville; six grandchildren, several nieces and nephews. ## Burly Man Attempts To Molest Pittsfield Girl

Burly, six-foot-four, 220-pound John Dohallow of Sharon was in a more subdued mood today than he was early Saturday morning when he attempted to grab a Pittsfield girl leaving a shower in Irvine. The terrified girl was treated for deep shock after the huge man attempted to force his way into the car where she had taken refuge. He received 40 days in jail in lieu of $64 fine. Trooper James Bailey fills in the admission slip to Warren County Jail.

PITHOLE WELL

The second redrilled oil well at Pithole began to produce oil over the weekend. It is being pumped by the rig. Berry No. 2, on the east side of Pithole Creek, is making about 400 barrels of water a day and an estimated two barrels of oil. No. 1, on the west side, has been making between two and three barrels a day regularly for the past several weeks. Both were old wells, believed to have been originally drilled in 1865-66, from which gas or oil was found escaping a year ago.

FALL FOLIAGE EXCURSION

The annual Fall Foliage rail trip will be held on Oct. 12, under the sponsorship of the Buffalo Chapter, National Railway Historical Society. The train will pass over lines of the Lehigh Valley Railroad in the Finger Lakes regions. Passengers will go through Seneca Falls, Waterloo, Auburn, Moravia, Groton, Richford, Owego to Sayre, Pa. Seneca, Cayuga and Owasco Lakes may be seen from the special train. After an hour layover at Sayre, the return portion of the trip will be via the main line to Buffalo, along the shores of Seneca Lake. A counter will be set up in the baggage car for the dispensing of sandwiches, coffee, soft drinks and other refreshments.

KILLING FROST

Titusville Herald: The first killing frost of fall was expected to hit portions of the Titusville region shortly before dawn today from indications last night. At 10:30 p. m., the temperature at the Titusville Water Works was 35 degrees. Despite this low temperature, however, low-lying points might be spared a killing frost by fog, which moved into the region late last night, or by a change in the weather. At midnight, the Water Works reported the mercury had risen three degrees to 38, apparently because of the fog or a reversal in weather conditions. At 1 a. m. it was back to 37. For the fifth consecutive day, the low has got lower. Last Thursday the low was 62 degrees; on Friday it was 61. Saturday the mercury dipped to 50 degrees and yesterday morning the low was 40.

WOMAN IS HURT

Greta McIntyre of Spring Creek suffered contusions of the knee and thigh Sunday night when the car in which she was riding was struck by a passing car as it attempted to turn left on Route 426 near Spring Creek. She was released after treatment at Corry hospital. State Troopers said operator of the car, George Ross, 57, of Spring Creek, gave no turn signal. Swinging wide to pass was Howard Becker, 45, of Garland. His car sustained $250 damages. The Ross car was demolished, with loss estimated at $300. Both were heading east.

Sheffield Boy Proud Owner of Souvenir Balls

A Times-Mirror carrier is the holder of two souvenirs today that he can be justly proud of for several reasons.

Herman Rustau, Jr., Sheffield, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rustau, 11 Mill street, caught two foul balls in yesterday's baseball game at Pittsburgh between the Bucs and Philadelphia Phillies.

In the third inning, Steve Schofield connected with the sphere that finally reached young Rustau sitting behind home plate with his father. Later in the fourth inning, R. C. Stevens stepped up to the plate and fouled a ball which came into Herman's hands. Both are Pirate players.

This is a rarity in the fact that the same person grabs two balls in one game. With the Pirates pushing themselves into second place from a cellar position for so many years, the balls will be of great value to Rustau. Yesterday's game rang down the curtain for Pittsburgh in the '58 campaign with 84 victories and 70 defeats. In the same game, the Rustaus saw Richie Ashburn of Phillies win National League batting championship finishing with a .350 average.

Rustaus were among 30 Sheffield fans who chartered a bus from Warren City Lines to attend the game.

Herman has been a Times-Mirror carrier for two years and is a student at Sheffield High.

St. Louis Boys Recover Mouse From Space Trip

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Five St. Louis boys launched a mouse into the wild blue yonder Saturday and then recovered it—a feat tried unsuccessfully by the U.S. Air Force.

The pet white mouse was alive and healthy after a four-mile trip in a handkerchief gondola slung under seven helium-filled balloons.

The airborne mouse went out of sight of the launching pad before the youngsters could scramble to their bicycles and trail it. A householder in whose yard the mouse descended—after two of the balloons popped—noticed a radio station.

A "missing mouse" bulletin was put on the air, and the boys promptly claimed it.

The pet mouse is the property of Ed Gruenewald, 12.

Ed's colleagues at the launching pad in a city park were Jack Julius, 12, Jim Poehling, 12, Terry Beckerman, 11, and Steve Schoenbeck, 11.

President Reorganizing White House Staff

NEW YORK (AP) — President Eisenhower, it was reported today, will complete the reorganization of the White House staff with the appointment of Undersecretary Fred C. Scribner Jr. as the deputy assistant to the president.

The report of the selection of Scribner, 49, as deputy to Maj. Gen. Wilton B. Parsons was carried by the New York Times in a Washington dispatch.

Scribner is a lawyer and former Republican national committeeman from Bath, Maine.

The island of Singapore 17 miles long and 27 miles wide, lies 85 miles from the equator.

New Markers for Scenic Drives

In this Times-photo by Saylor, James Blomquist, Chamber of Commerce Tourist Attraction Committee chairman, is shown inspecting one of the new road markers made by Berenfield Barrel Company of Clarendon. Seated at his desk holding one of the signs is Mr. Berenfield who has turned out enough of the markers to guide motorists over the 40 mile stretch, most of which goes through the Allegheny National Forest.

One of Warren County's scenic drives will be marked with a new permanent type road marker this week so that motorists can follow the trail starting in Warren. The road signs have been provided with the generous cooperation of Myer Berenfield, president of Berenfield Barrel Co., Clarendon, who suggested using steel drum heads and a silk screen process. The marker is painted blue with yellow lettering saying "Scenic Trail—Warren Area Chamber of Commerce." They will be placed on the Heart's Content Scenic route which starts at the Hickory Street bridge, goes through Pleasant Township to Heart's Content and returns via the Farnsworth Road, Chapman Dam and Clarendon. The scenic trail mapping is a project of the Warren Area Chamber of Commerce Tourist Committee which is completing the first route in time for the beautiful fall foliage season. A second trail through Kinzua and returning through Scandia has also been mapped and the road markers will be erected next season. A folder "Warren County Scenic tours" has also been published and is getting wide distribution throughout the state.

Guild Calls Strike on Fulton's Newspapers

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—PITTSBURGH (AP)—American Newspaper Guild members employed by five weekly newspapers owned by Rep. James G. Fulton (R-Pa.) struck today.

A guild spokesman said the strike was the result of Fulton's refusal to negotiate a collective bargaining agreement. Pickets were set up at the headquarters of the newspapers in suburban Dormont.

The guild says Fulton recognized it in a letter he signed last May 5. At that time the guild claimed a membership of 69 of Fulton's 80 employees. The guild says about 30 employees, mostly guild members, have since lost their jobs, "supposedly for economic reasons."

2 PRECAUTIONARY RUNS
Borough firemen made two precautionary runs over the weekend. First call came at 8:40 p. m. Friday when wiring shorted in the home of Albert Anderson, 301 Madison avenue. Firemen investigated but found no damage. Just before noon Saturday the emergency preceptor crew responded to the southwest corner of Hickory street and Third avenue where Mrs. C. Richards, Sr., of Jamestown, had fallen on the sidewalk and injured her ankle. Her husband took her to the hospital for treatment.

BANDSMEN INVITATION
Complanter Drum and Bugle Corps extends an invitation to former and present bandsmen or anyone interested in learning drum and bugle to attend the meetings every Wednesday at 7 p. m. in American Legion home. An ad appearing elsewhere in today's edition notes that "Our record is history, our history a record, our goal to surpass our record history." The invitation is opened to anyone who wishes to join a winning musical organization which can guarantee good fellowship, travel marching and maneuvering and prestige in a growing drum corps world.

HOSPITAL EMERGENCIES
Requiring emergency treatment at Warren General Hospital during the weekend were:

Saturday, Richard Sampson, 812 Pennsylvania avenue, east, left ankle injury; Helen Richard, Jamestown, left ankle injury; Sally Joe Fazio, 1309 1/2 Pennsylvania avenue, east, right thumb cut. Sunday, Dairymple, 115 Dartmouth, cut over left eyebrow; Kenneth Summons, Shady Lawn, cut left thumb; Howard Anderson, 1305 Pennsylvania avenue west, right thumb cut. Sunday, Charles Kemery, 29 S. South, steel shiver in left eye; Raymond Haight, RD 1, Youngsville, cut right 5th finger; Beverly Fleming, 200 Lookout street, scalp cut; Larry Brown, 645 Jackson street, right elbow and left hip contusions; Leon Gouhen, Bethlehem, forehead cut, face bruise; Joyce Hawley, RD 1, Warren, right eye and forehead bruises; Pauline Demel, 104 Grant, bruises and abrasions on both legs.

New Fifth Republic

Communists formed the largest bloc campaigning against de Gaulle's constitution. They said it would open the way to dictatorship.

Gaullist leaders hailed the results as a decisive blow at the Reds, who have hamstrung French politics with disruptive tactics and the biggest single voting bloc—148 deputies—in the 586-seat National Assembly.

Approval of the constitution automatically rejects the old Assembly. De Gaulle now has four months of near-dictatorial powers in which he will write a new election law to seat a new Assembly.

Elections probably will come in late November or early December.

es under which Chang's air force would bomb Red gun positions on the mainland.

These were: If the Reds cut off food supplies to the offshore islands to the point where the people and the defenders were facing famine, and if ammunition supplies were cut to the point where the garrison did not have enough reserves to cope with an invasion.

Chiang's last open news conference in 1955 was on the eve of Nationalist China's withdrawal from the Tachen Islands, 200 miles north of Formosa. The withdrawal was covered by the U.S. 7th Fleet.

The 71-year-old generalissimo walked briskly into the conference room today and fielded questions easily for more than an hour.

"Negotiations of any type with the Communists are futile and thus includes talks now under way at Warsaw," the President said.

"Americans should not be so anxious for a cease-fire" he declared. "The Communists cannot continue their blockade and bombardment indefinitely. We must remain firm."

"Now is the time to bomb the mainland guns," he stated at one time. "But we are following a policy of restraint and have not acted out of consideration of the spirit of the U.S.-Chinese Mutual Defense Treaty and U.S. policy."

Chiang at first said the Nationalist government stand on debating the Formosa Strait crisis in the United Nations was under study.

He later said China would agree to the debate if the hostilities spread and there was evidence the Soviet Union was behind the aggression.

tinues its plan of gradual desegregation.

While the battle simmered over converting public schools into private ones, one private school did announce plans to open and met no opposition.

DECISION IS BLOW TO GOV. FAUBUS
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court declared today states cannot resort to "evasive schemes" to continue racial segregation in schools. Thus it dealt a blow to such plans as those calling for leasing public schools to private groups.

The unanimous opinion of the high tribunal was handed down shortly after a plan to lease four closed high schools to private organizations was set afoot in Little Rock, Ark. where Gov. Orval E. Faubus has been opposing immediate racial segregation at Central High School. Today's opinion elaborated on the court's Sept. 12 decision that desegregation must proceed forthwith at Central High. It went further and aimed blows at what it termed schemes to get around its stand that racial segregation in schools is unconstitutional.

The Rev. Wade Wright Egbert, an Episcopal minister, said classes would begin today for 28 students in the Trinity Episcopal Cathedral's parish hall.

BOY ELECTROCUTED
BUTLER, Pa. (AP)—Robert Nicklas, 11, of Evans City, was electrocuted Sunday when he touched a 12,000 volt power line while climbing a tree in Penn Twp. Butler County.

BANK CALL
WASHINGTON (AP) — The comptroller of the currency issued a bank call today. It requires national banks to report their condition as of Sept. 24.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Banking Department today issued a call requiring all state banking institutions to report their financial condition as of Sept. 24. The report need not be published.

One Dead in Crash in Westmoreland County

NEW KENSINGTON, Pa. (AP) — One Westmoreland County man was killed and another critically hurt early today in a single car crash on route 66 near Oklahoma in Westmoreland County.

State police identified the victim as Robert Kopinsky, 27, of Trafford. His companion, Lawrence McCoy, 26, also of Trafford, was admitted to the Citizens General Hospital in New Kensington.

Officers said the auto went out of control and plunged from the road.

Nixon Plans Flying Trip to Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Vice President Richard Nixon plans a flying trip to Pittsburgh Oct. 10 for a public appearance and speech in behalf of Republican candidates for statewide offices.

Tentative plans announced over the weekend by Republican headquarters here call for Nixon to arrive at the Greater Pittsburgh Airport from Columbus, Ohio. He will travel by motorcade to downtown Pittsburgh and speak at a reception. He is slated to return to Washington the same day.

Pittsburgh Dentist and Wife Monoxide Victims

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP) — A Pittsburgh dentist, Dr. Gerald L. Ostfeld, 33, and his physician wife, Dr. Elizabeth Ostfeld, 28, were found asphyxiated Sunday in their cottage near Confluence.

Deputy coroner John Spear of Fayette County said wind apparently blew down an exhaust pipe and extinguished the flames in a small gas heater, permitting the fumes to escape.

New York State People Victims of Erie Crash

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—Two New York state residents were killed Saturday night in the collision of two autos on Route 20, six miles east of Erie. Five other persons were injured.

The dead were Elwyn Farnsworth, 38, of Westfield, N.Y. and Doris L. Currier of Portland R.D. 1, N.Y., both occupants of a car operated by Bernard Wolfe, 20, of Erie.

Two Dead, Six Hurt In Butler Co. Accident

BUTLER, Pa. (AP)—Two young men were killed and six others were injured in the head-on collision of two autos Saturday night on Route 8, two miles south of Slippery Rock.

Killed were Robert Surrena, 18, of Grove City, driver of one car, and Anthony Dorenkamp, 18, of Butler R.D. 1, an occupant of the other car.

Storm Loss

Ocean Isle Beach, N. C., damaged most of the houses at Holden Beach and sent high water over the protective sand dunes at Long Beach, damaging roads. This was in the forenoon.

Wilmington, the state's biggest coastal city, suffered an estimated million dollars damage, said the highway patrol. Most of this was to residences and businesses.

Fatherly up the coast, Mayor Pro Tem George Kanouts of Erie Beach estimated property damage at $250,000, beach erosion at $20,000. Mayor Glenn M. Tucker estimated Carolina Beach damage at 1 1/2 million dollars, but said no property owners were wiped out.

Forward Pass to End Zone Enables Dragons to Beat Titusville Rockets 6 to 0

(By LARRY)

Penalties hampered early efforts of Warren High Dragons to score against Titusville Rockets Saturday, but after suffering an annulled 81-yard touchdown run by fullback Jim Wick, the Sal eleven rallied back in the second quarter to tilt the Rockets 6-0. Beginning a drive on their own 31, Warren moved to Titusville's 7 where quarterback Lou Mascaro completed a pass to Rock Lobdell in the end zone which became the lone tally of the contest.

Seconds in the first period, Wick came in possession of the ball on Warren's 19 and darted 81 yards for a touchdown. A marker on the field abolished the run.

In the second quarter, Warren had the pigskin no their 31 when, on a play, officials moved the ball to the 50 yard line after a penalty against Titusville. Andy Larson gained 3 yards on the following play. Mascaro completed a jump pass to Bill Brumagin on the 31.

STATISTICS	W	T
First Downs	8	8

Passes Attempted	12	17
Passes Completed	3	7
Passes Intercepted	1	2
Fumbles	1	0
Own Fumbles Rec.	1	0
Penalties	4	2
Yards Penalized	40	30

Covering enough yardage for a first down from the 38, Mascaro went back for a pass but waited a little too long and was rushed by Rocket gridders. He ran from their reach and gained 2 yards. Lou then passed to Lobdell on Titusville's 7. Two plays later, Lobdell caught a pass in the end zone but dropped it.

Mascaro then attempted another pass to John Colvin, but rushed it and the attempt fell incomplete. Next forward toss by the star quarterback came into Lobdell's hands in the end zone. Try for the extra point was futile.

Two other near attempts to score by Warren were lost, once when they advanced to Titusville's 9 only to be stopped by a penalty. Whistle-blow when Warren found themselves on the Rockets' 5, later.

Warren went into the game in good physical shape. Dick Sorenson was unable to start, sustaining an ankle injury during practice the week before. Rockets were physically banged-up. Wednesday night, Tom Fye broke his arm during practice. George Dewey is having back trouble. Others on the sick list are Dick Platt, John Endres and Jim Schwab.

Franklin's win over Meadville Friday night put them in top position in Section II, District 10. Warren now holds second with their 2 and 1 record. Saturday's loss was the third consecutive one for Titusville. Rockets dropped their opener to Oil City in a conference tip, and dropped another to Grove City. Warren took their opener from Corry, then lost to Franklin.

"Like the Guy Who Plays Poker All Night and Finally Dealt Good Hand" -- Haney

Fred Haney

By HARRY GRAYSON

As Connie Mack always stressed, no baseball club is of championship caliber until it wins two pennants in a row.

The Braves have done that and now will attempt further to prove themselves by again repelling the Yankees in the World Series.

With this, Fred Girard Haney, 60, finally has achieved his life's ambition. The L'l Fella has done something big in the game to which he has given 40 years. Mightily few have spent so much time or traveled a rougher road in writing a success story.

"I am like the guy who plays poker all night and finally is dealt a good hand," he smiles.

At 24, and after five campaigns in the higher minors, Fred Haney still considered the finest all-around high school athlete in the history of Los Angeles, was Tyrus Raymond Cobb's third baseman in Detroit. There he met his boyhood idol, after whom he has patterned his baseball ever since.

The third strike wasn't out for Haney, who scaled the heights after twice tacking the impossible as a major league manager.

The L'l Fella—he stands only five feet six and even now weighs no more than 170 pounds—was extremely popular as the playing manager of Toledo in the American Association when the lowly St. Louis Browns called him in 1939. The Little Brownies were hopeless. Asked why he took the assignment, Haney replied: "There are only 16 jobs of the kind and I'm fortunate to be getting one of them."

Haney managed the Browns until early June of 1941, shook their defeatist complex, engineered the deals that restored them to respectability. They were third in 1942, won in '44—remember?

Branded a failure under distressing circumstances, Haney returned to Toledo, where he managed through '42 and then spent the next half dozen years broadcasting the games of the Hollywood club.

Haney was exposed to Branch Rickey and the St. Louis Cardinals at the end of his relatively short big league playing career. So, when the Hollywood club sought a working agreement with the Brooklyn Dodgers in '49, the Mahatma closed it with the understanding that Haney would manage the Stars in four years. Haney won two pennants and finished second and third, and Rickey brought him to Pittsburgh to lead the youth movement there.

This was another discouraging task. Asked why he accepted, Haney said: "Mr. Rickey is going to win another pennant and I want to be there when he does it."

Haney didn't like the way he was dismissed in Pittsburgh, and said so. When John Quinn telephoned the L'l Fella in the fall of '55, offering a coaching job in Sudsville, Haney asked the general manager if this had been cleared with Charley Grimm.

Haney flew from Los Angeles to Grimm's St. Louis home to be sure that the move had the approval of the then manager.

The Braves finished second in '53, third in '54 and second in '55. Haney took over in mid-season of '56 and when Milwaukee lost the day before the season closed had every reason to blow his top. Instead, the L'l Fella thought the situation out logically, told the Braves to go home and forget it. He advised them to report in condition in the spring, because he intended to start their run from then.

The best manager can't win

American Race Grinds to a Close With Ted on Top

By JACK HAND Associated Press Sports Writer

The American League "race" that really ended in May ground to a close Sunday with the New York Yankees winning by 10 games and 40-year-old Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox clinching his sixth batting championship.

Williams smashed seven hits in 11 trips in the final series at Washington, beating out teammate Pete Runnels who had only five hits in 19 at-bats.

Williams clinched it with a home run into the center field bleachers. He had doubled earlier in Boston's 6-4 victory over Washington.

The final figures showed Williams .328 and Runnels .322. Boston's eighth triumph in its last nine games sewed up third place while Cleveland took fourth by whipping Detroit 6-2 Chicago, using young pitchers after a second-place finish, ground up an 11-4 score over Kansas City.

Don Larsen and Tom Sturdivant turned up for World Series duty as the Yankees swept two from Baltimore 7-0 and 6-3.

Spahn Is Slated to Oppose Whitey Ford in the Opener

By JOE REICHLER Associated Press Sports Writer

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Milwaukee's Warren Spahn and New York's Whitey Ford, the same pair who pitched last October's opener, will face each other in the first game of the 1958 World Series Wednesday.

The selection of the star southpaws to open the post season proceedings was taken for granted even before the official announcements, scheduled to be made some time today.

Spahn, 22-11 during the regular season, warmed up for his important assignment with a six-inning chore against Cincinnati Saturday, during which he permitted only one run. Ford (14-7) also turned in an impressive performance for his lead-off role with a one-hit, six-inning performance against Baltimore Friday.

Although neither of the managers would admit it, each has his rotation for the first three games all set. Lew Burdette (20-10), three-time conqueror of the Yankees in last year's Milwaukee triumph, is a lead pipe cinch to hurl the second game for the Braves, opposing him on Thursday, in Milwaukee's County Stadium, will be Bob Turley (21-7), the Yankees' strong-armed right-hander.

Another Sports Night Guest

A 1950 graduate of St. Bonaventure University, Eddie has been basketball coach at the University past five seasons and will appear in Warren October 13 for K. of C. Sports Night affair.

To date, his cagers have won 77 games and lost 48.

Prior to joining Bonaventure faculty, Donovan was a teacher in Olean Public School System and coached Olean High varsity basketball squad. His scholastic record was 30 and 9. Included was a Section VI, A.A.A. title the first year he was head mentor.

While a student at St. Bonaventure, Eddie played three years of varsity ball. In his senior year, however, the 36-year-old coach passed up varsity competition to coach the freshman team.

Two years ago Bonnies won 17 and lost 7, last year's record being 21 and 5. Both seasons they competed in National Invitation Tourney, taking third place each time.

A native of Elizabeth, New Jersey, Donovan played basketball and baseball in high school. After graduation, he enlisted in U. S. Navy, serving

Sheffield Victim As Dutchmen Win Their 24th

Sheffield Wolverines made a futile last half bid to end amazing St. Marys Flying Dutchmen's game-winning streak Friday night but fell short of the try as St. Marys notched their 24th win at the expense of Sheffield, 28-13.

Sheffield mentor Louis DeRubeis reported that his charges were anxious to break the creditable win streak of the Dutchmen and would make an all-out attempt. As statistics show, the Wolverines spurred ahead in the final quarter to push over two touchdowns to narrow the 21-0 St. Marys lead as they worked to the best of their ability in their try to dump St. Marys.

Early in the fourth quarter, Wolverines completed a 65-yard drive backed by Lee Hall's 35-yard scamper to pay dirt.

Sheffield bounced back three seconds later to score their second touchdown. After recovering a Dutchman fumble on St. Marys 39, Rudolph passed to Benson on the first play, who darted into the end zone. Hall passed to Jim McNeal for the extra point, to make it 21-13, St. Marys leading.

First TD for St. Marys came with seconds remaining in the first quarter as the winners recovered a Sheffield fumble and Dave Green bowled over.

Again, with only seconds remaining, Green dashed 83 yards for the second TD. Denny Cashmere covered 3 yards to score for the third time. After Sheffield's strong rally in the fourth, Joe Renwick stopped a Sheffield drive by intercepting a pass on his own 12-yard line and raced to Sheffield's 4 before being stopped. He pushed into the end zone to make the score 28-13.

The loss was the second straight for Sheffield this season. In a big game next Saturday, which can well be termed "game of the week", Sheffield travels to Youngsville in the last of the Warren County Class B rival games. The Northern Area - Youngsville - Sheffield "Warren County Class B League" will come to a close this season with Saturday's game. Youngsville won their first of the season by defeating Northern Area 34-21 Saturday.

Ashburn Cops Second National League Crown

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Richie Ashburn clinched his second National League batting title despite a strong challenge by Willie Mays as the teams finished their seasons Sunday.

Ashburn collected three singles in four official trips while his Philadelphia Phillies were edging Pittsburgh in 10 innings 6-4.

Manager Billy Rigney gave Mays a hand by batting him in the leadoff position. Needing a perfect five for five to catch the Phils center fielder, he managed to get three for five, including his 29th home run. The final averages showed Ashburn .350, Mays .347.

Alex Kellner and Brooks Lawrence of Cincinnati teamed up with a four-hit 4-0 shutout of the pennant-winning Milwaukee Braves. Manager Fred Haney paraded Bob Rush, Carlton Willey, Ernie Johnson and Juan Pizarro in a World Series tuneup. Willey, likely third game pitcher, was the loser.

With Mays showing the way, the Giants drubbed St. Louis 7-2, finishing in third place 12 games behind the Braves. St. Louis, a major disappointment, wound up in a fifth-place tie with Chicago, 20 games back. The Cubs and Los Angeles finished their seasons Saturday while the Coliseum was given over to pro football Sunday.

DRIVER KILLED
TRENTON, N.J. (AP) — Driver Jimmy Reece was injured fatally Sunday when his racing car careened off a 40-foot-high banked track, sailed 150 feet, and smashed into a hurricane fence outside the Trenton Speedway. Reece, 28, of Speedway, Ind., was rounding a turn in the last lap of a 100-mile race when the accident occurred. The race was won by Rodger Ward of Indianapolis.

Jamestown's Passes Incomplete; Lose 6-0

Warren's chief rival, Jamestown Red Raiders, lost to Niagara Falls Cataracts 6-0 Friday evening.

Trailing 6-0 as a result of the fourth quarter touchdown, Raiders tried desperately to steal the ball and succeeded in the final minute of play.

Sandy Reale grabbed the ball and streaked 34 yards for Jamestown before being stopped. With 30 seconds remaining, Raiders tossed an incomplete pass. D'Angelo crossed up the Falls defense by sprinting to the 13 for a first down.

Jamestown lost three yards on the next play, and then a last second pass fell incomplete in the end zone and the game was over.

Gerarde Opponent Again Fails to Appear for Bout

Tom Gerarde didn't fight, and Johnny Zizzaro didn't make his last amateur appearance Saturday night.

A regularly scheduled 10-bout amateur boxing card in Gannon auditorium in Erie Saturday night ended up in a jugged, re-matched affair due to the absence of several fighters.

Rocky Gerarde had been slated to meet with Jimmy Hartzell, New Castle. Hartzell never showed for the fight and the other four light-heavyweights available were already matched. This was the third time Hartzell failed to appear in the ring with Gerarde.

Johnny Zizzaro was to fight Lamar Adams as his last amateur bout before turning pro around November 1 in Erie. Adams weighed in too heavy for Bizzaro and was matched with Perry Keys, Erie.

It is expected that an amateur card will be presented in Warren within four weeks on which will appear Gerarde and Bizzaro, in his last amateur bid.

TKOs ruled outcome of three of the ten fights, decisions in three cases, and two KOs appeared in two.

1st Place Knights Tilt Bulldogs 21-6

Winner over Warren last weekend, Franklin Knights bowled over Meadville 21-6 Friday in a Section II conference battle and placed themselves in the Section top berth. The loss halted an 11-game winning streak of Meadville.

Meadville dominated play early in the game, but once Franklin got rolling there was no stopping it. Butch Conrad scored two of the Knights' scores and passed for a third, Walt Thomas kicked three conversions.

After a scoreless first quarter, Cremonese passed to J. Peters for 21 yards and a Meadville score late in the second. Conrad sneaked two yards for Franklin's first score in the third period and rolled out to the left for 11 yards and another in the same quarter. In the fourth he passed to Lou Fogle for 20 yards and the final score.

Score by quarters:

Meadville ..... 0 0 0 0-6
Touchdowns: Franklin—Conrad 3, Fogle; Meadville—J. Peters.

Kibbie Stars for Kane In Emporium 27-0 Tip

Kane Wolves evened their win-loss record at 1-1-1 Friday night when they trounced Emporium 27-0 and moved themselves into third place in Bucktail Conference behind St. Marys and Ridgway.

Local eleven took a 7-0 lead in first quarter and made it 14-0 early in the second. Third TD came in third and they added insurance with another in the last.

Jim Kibbie starred for the Wolves as he booted the extra point for first TD, threw a 36-yard pass in the end zone for second touchdown and added extra point. Jim scored the third TD and his placement made it 20-0 for Kane. He bucked over for the last scoring of Kane.

Eagles in 34-21 Win Over Knights Of Northern Area

In a game that is one of the biggest for both schools, Youngsville Eagles downed the Knights of Northern Area 34-21 as Jim Fehlman, Joe Inter and Bill McMeans are credited with scoring for the victory.

Northern Area won their opener from Sheffield. Youngsville's win Saturday was their first of the season, dropping two previous games.

Fehlman starred in the scoring end as he culminated three lengthy drives into the end zone of 5, 10 and 20 yard runs. Inter electrified spectators as he returned a kickoff 80 yards to pay dirt and another time on a 32-yard sweep.

McMeans accurately placed-kicked on four attempts for extra points.

Northern Area scored one touchdown in each of the last three quarters. Al Ludwick darted for touchdowns of 30 and 35 yards and Ken Williams passed the pigskin 30 yards to Dwight Work for the third.

Weekend action for both teams will find Youngsville hosting Sheffield, as their new athletic field will be dedicated. Northern Area begins North-western conference play at Randolph.

Pre-Season Deer Poachers Pay Fines of $100

Some hunters out doing a little pre-season deer shooting about 4:30 a. m. Saturday were nabbed on the road between Sandstone Springs and Hearts Content by Game Protector Dave Titus.

Assessed $100 fines were Herman Gray, 37, and William Knisley, 24, both of RD 2, Warren, according to the Sheriff's Department which held the men in custody until disposition of their case was made.

Game Protector Titus caught the men "in the act", shooting from the car. Fortunately for them, he noted, they missed the deer.

Game protectors have been patrolling the roads more industriously lately as buck fever season draws near.

Latos Powers Corry Over Johnnies 32-7

Powered by Ed Latos' three touchdowns, Corry Beavers won its second of three starts Friday night by a lopsided 32-7 count over Johnsonburg.

Four of the Beavers' five TDs came in the first half with Latos collecting three of them. Flashy halfback swept end 15 yards for the first score, then slipped around right side for 27 yards and through right tackle for four yards in second period.

Setting up Latos' last TD was a 35-yard pass from Terry Williams to Ken Downey. The latter ended Corry's scoring in the fourth quarter with a 53-yard run.

Johnsonburg averted a shut-out in the same final heat when Bill Saunders sped 52 yards.

Johnnies have lost 2, Beavers won two, lost one.

Score by quarters:
Corry ..... 12 14 0 6-32
Johnsonburg 0 0 0 7-7

"Beat the Pro" Tourney Success

By MARY HARLAND
Fifty parbusters vying for the championship in first annual Babe Didrikson Zaharias "Beat the Pro" open golf tourney blazed over the rainsoaked Kinzua Valley Golf course Sunday to complete the nine-hole event. Danny Lord captured men's division honors while Marie Fino won in women's play.

Local CVCC pro Fred Lindstrom whipped the front side in 35, one under par on Kinzua's 3117 yards of slim fairways and slippery greens to edge out competing pro Floyd Drake of Chautauque Country Club and owner of Savannah Driving Range.

There were 10 players whose medal scores broke par with Lord, Kinzua club member, and J. Clark who deadlocked with a net 33. In a sudden death play-off that went seven holes, Lord emerged victor to cop the coveted Sword Trophy presented by Dr. John Larson.

In Women's Division, Marie Fino toured the same course and Warren County.

"Yankee Killer" Scheduled On Sports Night Program

The "Yankee Killer" is scheduled for appearance in Warren October 13 as a guest for Sports Night activities.

Steve, former major league pitcher, wound up his active career as player-manager with Erie Sailors of Class D New York-Pennsylvania League this season. Gromek had a special knack of beating New York Yankees.

Winning 19 games against 14 losses, Steve hurried for both Cleveland Indians and Detroit with Logan of Mountain States League in 1939. He turned to pitching the next year with Flint of Michigan State circuit and wound up with a 14-2 record.

From Flint, he played two seasons in International League with Baltimore before reporting to Cleveland in 1944.

In 1943 he pitched an 18-inning scoreless tie against Rochester, game finally being halted by rain.

A favorite at Cleveland, Gromek pitched with some of the Inian greats—Bob Feller, Bob Lemon, Early Wynn and Mike Garcia. His top season for the Tribe was 1945 when he won 19, losing 9.

His lifetime earned run average in the majors was a classy 3.36. He is married to the former Jeannette Kayko.

NEW YORK (AP) — Whenever our favorite television father, Robert Young, visits New York we try to drop around and pay our respects and see what's new with the Anderson family of Springfield, U.S.A.

One new thing this season is that "Father Knows Best" has moved to another network—CBS-TV.

Another new thing is that the kids are getting older—and Father doesn't like to think about that. Maybe, he confesses, because it means that he's getting older too.

"We'd thought some of marrying off Betty this season," Young said recently. "She's 20, you know and a college sophomore. But we decided to wait. What you'll see this year are barely perceptible changes."

"Betty will be inclined to be more selective in her boy friends. Bud—let's see, he's 17 and a high school junior—is changing subtly, too, from sheer terror of girls to a vaguely morbid interest in them."

"And Kathy—she's 12 and going into seventh grade—wants to be more of a friend to a boy and less

Cash Receipts for Farmers In Pennsylvania Show Hike

By JOHN KOENIG JR.
Associated Press Special Service

WASHINGTON (AP)—Farmers' cash receipts in Pennsylvania rose by more than 23 million dollars in the first seven months of this year compared to the same period in 1957.

The U.S. Agriculture Department reported the Pennsylvania total for the January-July period at $447,203,000 against $423,835,000 for the first seven months of last year.

Behind the rise in total receipts was a big boost in income from livestock and livestock products. This category rose from $324,068,000 to $354,103,000 and more than compensated for a sizeable decrease in cash for crops.

Cash receipts for crops fell from $99,767,000 for the January-July period of 1957 to $93,100,000 for the same period this year.

The Pennsylvania increase followed a national trend as reported by the department. It said farmers' cash receipts totaled nearly 19½ billion dollars in the first eight months of 1958, or 10½ per cent above last year's January-August period.

Prices received by farmers during the eight-month period averaged 6 per cent above last year. And the volume of marketings was about 4 per cent larger.

Farmers realized net income in the first three quarters of 1958 is estimated at an annual rate of about 13 billion dollars, or 19 per cent more than in the same period of the year before.

The increase resulted from higher average prices, increased marketings, and larger soil bank payments, which more than offset a further gain in production expenses, the department said.

Cash receipts for Pennsylvania farmers for July alone this year were $67,319,000, an increase of more than 3½ million dollars over July of 1957. Increase was shown in both the livestock and crop cash receipts categories.

The average realized net income for a Pennsylvania farm in 1957 was $1,768, the highest since 1953 when it was $1,803.

The 1957 Pennsylvania average net income is considerably below the average of $2,179 for nine north Atlantic states that year. This group averaged also was the highest since 1953, when it reached $2,325.

An interesting facet in the 1957 statistics was that government payments to Pennsylvania farmers reached a nine-year high with $10,800,000 paid out. The 1956 total was only $6,100,000.

Student Writes of Her Experiences in Russia

Fourth in a Series
By BEVERLY DEEPE
Written for The Associated Press

Below me was a mass of praying humanity.

The wooden benches were invisible under the crowd. People stood on the stairways. They were packed six deep in the side door which opened onto a pile of rubble.

This was a Baptist church service in Moscow which I was visiting as a member of the U.S.-U.S.S.R. student exchange. Two other members and Victor, our Russian translator, came to church with me.

An elderly man in a dark gray suit at the church door motioned us upstairs to the balcony. All the seats in the church were filled, except for a long narrow visitors bench next to the railing.

The old women among the 1,500 worshippers wore black or brown dresses with white or printed bandanas. Only three wore dark straw hats with simple trim.

Old men with white beards and mangy suits were sprinkled throughout the congregation.

And—although the Communist line says religion is for old women—I noticed about every fifth person in the congregation looked under 35.

(The American Baptist Convention headquarters in New York says the Baptist Church in the Soviet Union has grown from 28,900 members in 1912 to 530,000 members today. Baptists say 3,000 converts have been baptized since Jan. 1, 1958, and more are on probation).

Between each verse of the hymn, the music stopped and the minister recited the next one. There were no hymnals in the church. Some members carried the verses in books printed in the old pre-Revolutionary orthography. Many carried the verses in their hearts.

I shall remember this singing for years—a slow, melancholy, almost despairing singing that reverberated from the high white ceiling and the undecorated walls.

The minister's sermon interwove Scripture readings with Christian principles to be followed by the congregation. A woman across from me wiped her eyes as the minister instructed the worshippers to remain strong despite many troubles and temptations. I saw other women blowing their noses.

A stifled sobbing rose throughout the congregation when the closing prayer asked forgiveness for wrongdoing and Christian acts omitted from their lives.

Throughout the service, white slips of paper fluttered from the balcony and were passed to the six spades. Unfortunately, the diamond queen did not fall and I went down one trick. The interesting feature of the hand is that I could have made six diamonds. I could get to dummy by trumping the second spade and take a successful diamond finesse against East. Would you have bid six diamonds?"

The answer to his question is that 25 years ago I would probably have blasted my way into six spades the way he did. Twenty years ago I might actually have worked my way into six diamonds.

I have no severe criticism of either contract, but today when I am older and more conservative, I would probably have contented myself with a mere four-spade bid after my partner's second denial of any strength. It is too much to expect that your partner's bad hand will contain just the one card you need for a slam.
